Bedding Basics

Sheets

Invest in high-quality twin XL sheets to ensure a good night's sleep. Look for soft, breathable fabrics like cotton or microfiber.

Blankets

Bring a cozy blanket to layer on your bed, plus an extra throw for chilly nights or watching movies.

Pillows

Choose supportive pillows that will keep your neck and spine aligned. Consider a memory foam option for added comfort.

Bathroom Essentials

1 Towels

Pack bath, hand, and washcloth towels in your preferred colors and patterns.

2 Shower Caddy

Keep your toiletries organized and easy to transport to the communal bathroom.

3 First-Aid Kit

Stock up on bandages, pain relievers, and other basic medical supplies for minor issues.

Clothing and Storage

Hangers and Organizers

Maximize your limited closet space with hangers, a laundry basket, and over-the-door shoe organizers.

Vacuum Bags

Compress off-season clothing and linens to free up valuable real estate in your dorm room.

Shoe Rack

Keep your shoes neatly organized and easily accessible with a dedicated rack or organizer.

Electronics and Tech

Laptop

Your essential tool for academics, communication, and entertainment.

Chargers

Don't forget your phone, laptop, and other device chargers.

Headphones

Stay focused while studying or enjoy music and videos privately.

Power Strip

Expand your electrical outlets to accommodate all your gadgets.

Cooking and Dining

Plates and Utensils

Invest in durable, microwave-safe dishes and cutlery for quick meals and snacks.

Appliances

A mini-fridge and coffee maker can be convenient, but check your dorm's policies first.

Hydration

Stay hydrated with a reusable water bottle and enjoy your favorite hot beverages.

Study and Organization

1

Desk Lamp

Illuminate your workspace for late-night study sessions.

2

Office Supplies

Keep pens, pencils, notebooks, and a calculator within reach.

3

Desk Organizer

Minimize clutter and maximize productivity with a well-organized desk.

Comfort and Decor

Lighting and Decor

Add personality and coziness with string lights, posters, rugs, and other decorative touches.

Mirror

A full-length mirror is a must-have for getting ready and checking your outfit.
